What I ticked myself

• I paid the rent, or offered to pay it, and the landlord refused it.

Things the app flagged to check

• You may be able to pay to end this case. In Georgia, a tenant may be able to stop a nonpayment case by paying all the rent owed plus court costs. There are limits on how often this can be used. Ask legal aid if this applies to you.
• Check the amount they claim. They claim $1,850.00, about 2.1 months of your rent. Compare every fee with your lease and your receipts.

Made with 7 Days, a free information tool. This is NOT legal advice. The tenant filled this in and checked it against their paper. Nothing was saved.
